"Tonight's concert is dedicated to the memory of Les, to whom the whole society owes a great deal of gratitude.

Les was a first-class chairman, music arranger, Music Director and guitar maker. In those capacities his contribution to the society over many years was immense.

Thanks to his incredible range of guitar related knowledge, he was also able to entertain us constantly with talks, quizzes and scholarly tips. During Lockdown it was Les who kept us going, organising Zoom meetings and performances and yet more of his enjoyable talks.

We hope that this evening 's programme goes some way to doing justice to his memory.
Thank you Les, from all of us. We miss you dearly"
